Essling Expansion takes a stake in Ubitransport

Paris, September 3, 2019 – Essling Expansion, Essling Capital's Small & Lower-Mid Cap fund, completes its second investment supporting Ubitransport's growth.

Created in Mâcon (Burgundy, France) in 2012 by Jean-Paul Medioni, Ubitransport develops and integrates 100% cloud and 100% smartphone Intelligent Transportation Systems that help fluidify, secure and optimize passenger transport networks.

Ubitransport offers a suite of comprehensive digital mobile solutions dedicated to school transportation management (2School), intercity and employee transportation (2Place) and on-demand transportation (2Tod).

The company, which has 55 employees, already provides more than 120 transportation networks in France and abroad. With a double-digit growth, Ubitransport won the Technology Fast 50 France (2017) and ranks among the 100 most promising start-ups in the world according to Red Herring (2018).

For its CEO Jean-Paul Medioni, the Group aims to "bring technological breakthrough to the territories", this direction enables Ubitransport to achieve its ambition of "becoming a global and digital undisputed leader in the mobility sector".

"We are very pleased to support Ubitransport in its transformation and international development." said Bertrand Fesneau and Rémi Matuchansky, Co-Heads of Essling Expansion, a fund dedicated to high-growth companies in the digital and healthcare sectors.

"In a market full of opportunities, Ubitransport is expected to become a key player in mobility." adds Vincent Maignaut, Investment Director of Essling Expansion and Head of the Lyon office, who initiated the transaction.
